About Diversity Memphis

Who We Are

Our founding members are a group of individuals committed to fighting bias while striving to build a more tolerant Memphis. They represent over four decades of service to the Memphis Community working with organizations dedicated to combating bias, bigotry and racism.

What We Do

Through summer and weekend programs for teens, adult workshops, walks, multi-faith dialogues and other programs, we teach tolerance and promote the concept that our cultural, religious and racial differences are to be embraced.
